W.P(C).No.34348 OF 2007

Dated this the 26th day of November, 2007

JUDGMENT

The petitioner had a room in his possession in the Corporation stadium building. Now, the Grand Stand has been constructed. According to the petitioner, he is entitled to a room in the Grand Stand. The petitioner asserts that there was an offer for a room in the Grand Stand, if he vacates the room he possessed earlier. According to the Corporation, though the room that was earlier in possession of the petitioner remains locked, it contains all the movables of the petitioner and therefore, he is liable to pay the licence fee regarding that room and if such amount is paid, his request for a room in the Grand Stand would be considered by taking up Ext.P6. This is recorded and the writ petition is disposed of directing that if the petitioner remits the entire licence fee due as on today for the room in the stadium building where his articles are now kept, his application for allotment of a room in the Grand Stand will be considered before convening the auction of the other rooms.
